

Reading and the School Library Media Specialist Secondary Workshop

Agenda

Session I: Legislation, Trends and Studies

Session II: Engagement and Motivation

Break

Session III: Reading Instruction and Strategies

Lunch

Session IV: Technology and Reading

Break

Session V: Advocacy

Session VI: Professional Reading

Reading and the School Library Media Specialist

Workshop Booklet

Table of Contents

Introduction

Power Point Slides

Session I: Legislation, Trends and Studies

Power Point Slides

Reading Voluminously and Voluntarily

Reading Can Make You Smarter

What Reading Does for the Mind

Teen Buying Books at the Fastest Rate in Decades

What You Don't Know About Teens and Reading

Reading at Risk: A Survey of Literary Reading in America

School Libraries Work

“Not Just Boring Stories”: Reconsidering the Gender Gap for Boys

Young Teens on Reading and eReading: A Survey

Teacher Skills to Support English Language Learners

Activity: Nuggets of Research

Session II: Engagement and Motivation

Power Point Slides

Strategies to Engage Students

Linking Instruction with Needs, Interests and Dispositions

Fifty Ways to Promote Teen Reading in Your School Library

Lessons from New York Life Revitalizing High School Libraries Initiative 2003-2005

Students at New York Life revitalizing High School Libraries Sties talk About Why their Library Media Centers “Rock”

Reading Interest Survey

Using Student Engagement to Improve Adolescent Literacy (online)

The Teenage Brain Under Construction

Activity: Dynamic Strategies

Session III: Reading Instruction and Strategies

Power Point Slides

Literacy and Inquiry

Mind Mapping

Model of the School Library as a Dynamic Agent of Learning

From State Policy to Classroom Practice: Improving Literacy Instruction for all Students

Ask a Cognitive Scientist

Pre Reading Strategies

- Vocabulary: Word Splash and Word Map
- KWL Chart
- Carousel Brainstorm

After Reading Strategies

- Story Map
- Five Ws
- Story Star
- Genre Chart
- Venn Diagram
- Reading Goals Letter
- Think-Pair-Share

Nonfiction Strategies

- The SQ3R Reading Method
- Reading: How to Read a Textbook
- Reading: Expository Text
- Reading: Questioning
- Reading: Vocabulary
- Using Graphic Organizers
- Think Aloud
- Reading: Listening

Activity: Using Mind Mapping to Support Literacy

Session IV: Technology and Reading

PowerPoint Slides

Reading – It's Not Just About Books

Using Podcasts as a PreReading Strategy

Secret Life of Bees Blog

What Video Games Teach Us About Teaching Reading

Online Fanfiction

Meet the New You

Tune in Online (Web comics)

Session V: Advocacy

Power Point Slides

Advocacy Action Plan for Reading

Building a Community of High School Readers

Teachers and Librarians Working Together for Teens and their Reading

Reading Instruction is for Everybody – Even Teenagers

Even for the Faint of Heart: Getting Teens to Participate in a Teen Advisory Board

The Who, When, What, Where, Why and How of Managing a Teen Advisory Board

From Library Jeopardy to Microfiction

Nuts and Bolts

Summer Belongs in the Hands of the Students

Activity: Library Action Plan

Session VI: Professional Literature

Power Point Slides

Professional Resources

World Café Instructions (online)

Wiki Resources (<http://aaslreading.wikispaces.com/>)

Activity: World Café